

Gemma Abels

Scholarship for High Schoolers

In memory of Gemma Abels, a local educator, activist, labor organizer and champion of social justice, the Edward Boss Prado Foundation, in partnership with SURJ South County (Showing Up For Racial Justice), is proud to present two $2,500 scholarships towards further education for high school students graduating in either 2021 or 2022.

Gemma Abels embodied many values, including but not limited to: striving for equity, amplifying marginalized voices, a love of learning, and commitment to the community.

To apply for the scholarship, choose a medium that speaks to how your education will carry Gemma's values into the world. Create a piece of writing, video, podcast, or ... surprise us!

Apply at <https://tinyurl.com/GemmaAbelsScholarship>

To apply, your family must earn less than $100,000 annually. Applicants of any immigration / citizenship status are welcome to apply.

Application deadline: October 10, 2021

Join us for Youth Conversations on Race & Social Justice
Saturday, September 25, for Ages 11-18, FREE
Register for the virtual conference: www.surjsouthcounty.com/events

www.edwardbossprado.org

www.surjsouthcounty.com