Glenn County was incorporated on March 5, 1891. The County seat, Willows was created March 11, 1891. Glenn County was developed out of the northern portion of Colusa County and named for Dr. Hugh J. Glenn, who was the largest wheat farmer in the state during his lifetime and a man of great prominence in the political and commercial life in California.

Glenn County is located in the northern central valley of California, approximately 75 miles north of Sacramento and 110 miles northeast of the San Francisco Bay Area. It is comprised of approximately 1,315 square miles and is bounded on the east by Butte County; the north by Tehama County; and the west by Mendocino County and on the south by Colusa County. With over 1188 farms and ranches, agriculture remains to be a primary source of Glenn County's economy. The 2020 gross production of agricultural commodities was valued at over 700 million dollars. Major commodities include rice, almonds, prunes, walnuts, corn, alfalfa hay, milk products, cattle, sheep, and apiary products.

There are approximately 475 full-time equivalent employees and a total annual budget of over $174 million dollars. The County is governed by a five member Board of Supervisors, who each represent a district based on an equal representation of the County's population. Members of the Board of Supervisors serve as the legislative body for Glenn County and provide policy direction for all branches of County government including the County Administrative Officer. Each Board member is elected by the voters in their district to a four year term.
