

LCC Rental Policy for FY 22-23 (October 1, 2022 to September 30, 2023):

1. The LCC has a five-tier rental group process:
 - a. Tier I: Resident theater companies Cara Mia Theatre Company and Teatro Dallas will have priority access to the Oak Farms Dairy Performance Hall and the multi-form theater space (MTS) before any other rental group.
 - i. Each resident theater company may request between 12-20 weeks for FY 22-23.
 - ii. Dates for resident theater companies will be finalized by May 15, 2022.
 - b. Tier II: LCC Core Groups have secondary access to the center's two performance spaces. Active Core Groups are as follows: Alegre Ballet Folklorico, Anita N. Martinez Ballet Folklorico, Ollimpaxqui Ballet Folklorico, and The Mexico Institute.
 - i. For FY 22-23, Tier II Groups will have a deadline of May 31, 2022 to submit requested dates.
 - c. Tier III: Dallas-based Latino/a arts and cultural organizations are the third tier.
 - i. For FY 22-23, Tier III Groups will have a deadline of June 15, 2022 to submit requested dates.
 - d. Tier IV: Dallas-based ALAANA* arts and cultural organizations, including LGBTQ+ organizations are the fourth tier.
 - i. For FY 22-23, Tier IV organizations will have a deadline of June 30, 2022 to submit requested dates.
 - e. Tier V: Dallas-based small and midsize arts and cultural organizations are the fifth tier.
 - i. Any remaining dates will be available for rental by small and midsize Dallas-based arts and cultural organizations after June 30, 2022.
2. Tier II to Tier V rental submissions will be considered in the order they are received within their respective Tier group deadlines.
3. LCC Core Groups receive discounted rental rates compared to regular rental rates. Please see the FY 22-23 LCC Core Groups Rental Rate spreadsheet.
4. Rental rates for Tier III-V for the new multi-form theater space will be as follows:
 - a. Load-in, rehearsal and tech: $300 for an 8-hour block
 - b. Performances: $400 for an 8-hour block
5. Nonprofit groups receive discounted rental rates compared to regular rental rates for the Oak Farms Dairy Performance Hall:
 - a. Regular nonprofit rental rate is $150/hr with a four-hour minimum per day.
 - b. For-profit rental rate is $500/hr with a four hour-minimum per day.

LCC Core Group Rental Policy for FY 22-23 (October 1, 2022 to September 30, 2023):

1. Request for Dates for FY 22-23: LCC Core Groups will receive an email for request for dates for FY 22-23 (October 1, 2022 – September 30, 2023) on May 2, 2022 with a deadline to submit dates by May 31, 2022.
2. Total weeks allotted and blocks of dates: LCC Core Groups may request a maximum of a four-week block of consecutive dates in both the Oak Farms Dairy Performance Hall and the multi-form theater space, for example February 4-March 1, 2023. Any Core Group request exceeding three (3) four-week blocks (12 weeks total in FY 22-23) will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

3. Rental Waivers: For FY 22-23, the center will provide each LCC Core Group with up to twenty rental waiver days (four weeks) of rehearsal and performance space in the Oak Farms Dairy Performance Hall or the multi-form theater space. Please note that the LCC is closed on Sundays and Mondays and a week is defined as Tuesday through Saturday. The twenty days may be used consecutively or in blocks of 5-day increments. For example, a Core Group may submit a request for two weeks in November 2022 and two weeks in March 2023. (Please note that one day will count as a maximum of an 8-hour period, i.e. from 10 am to 6 pm; overtime fees will be incurred after the 8-hour block.)
4. Rent: Any use of the Oak Farms Dairy Performance Hall and new multi-form theater space beyond four weeks will be subject to rent as stipulated in FY 22-23 LCC Core Group Rental Rate Spreadsheet.
