

Tuesday, September 21st
9:00 am – 10:30 am
Via Zoom (see below)

African American Perspectives: Palliative Care and End of Life Considerations and Conversations

About the program*:

This free program will feature a panel discussion addressing:

- Unique considerations for honoring the wishes of those we love and care for
- Successful strategies for having these important conversations
- Community resources that can help

Panelists Include:

- Dr. Alvin Reaves III, Medical Director, Palliative Medicine and Supportive Care, Adventist Healthcare Shady Grove Medical Center (moderator)
- Christopher Rogers, PhD, MPH, Policy and Strategy Officer, Montgomery County Public Health Services
- Reverend Kenneth Nelson, Senior Pastor Seneca Community Church, Germantown, Maryland

Who should attend?

Healthcare providers, hospice and palliative care staff, payers, patients and caregivers, and anyone concerned about, serving or touched by serious illness.

Zoom Details – no registration required

For the September 21 event, log in here:

<https://us02web.zoom.us/j/82449271243?pwd=d2VEZjQ2VmVOeHBMcmxGdW9rWUVMQT09>

Meeting ID: 824 4927 1243 Passcode: 340237

Call-in: +1 301 715 8592 US (Washington DC)

* Webinar will be recorded and posted online at the Montgomery County Palliative Care and End of Life Coalition website (www.mccelc.org)

For more information, contact: Jackie Ogg, jackieo@rcn.com, 301-537-5627

Sponsored by The Montgomery County Palliative Care and End of Life Coalition
Quality of Life When Serious Illness Occurs

The Montgomery County Palliative Care and End of Life Coalition is a public-private partnership promoting integrated and coordinated Montgomery County programs, practices and policies for those with serious illness and their caregivers. For more information, visit mccelc.org
